Read the whole book and Re-read Scaredy Squirrel One of these books is fiction (story), one is non-fiction (tells you real-life facts). Which is which? Can you write a list showing how the non-fiction book is different to the fiction book?	Re-read 'Africa' Use the book to record facts about Africa. Sort them under these headings: Land, Animals, Countries & People. Use other books on EPIC (or research on the internet) to find out any extra facts about Africa and add them to your lists.	Re-read 'Africa' Use the facts from yesterday and write them in sentences – use your own words Example: Animals: You will find lots of different animals living in Africa. In the rainforest you might see...	Re-read 'Africa' Page 21: There are many beautiful places to see if Africa. What would you plan to see? Can you write a letter to me telling me what I would see if I go to Africa. You might want to do some extra research.	Re-read 'Africa' Can you write a book review for this book? This is where you tell me what you think about the book. There is an example up above.
