

Year 2 Reading

Read the text and then pick some questions to answer each day

COASTAL HOLIDAYS

It's time for a holiday on the coast, where the land meets the sea.

On the island of the United Kingdom, we are surrounded by the sea. We are spoilt for choice for places to visit on the coast for a much needed holiday. COASTAL HOLIDAYS have lots of fantastic deals this year. Keep reading to find some ideas for your trip...

BLACKPOOL

from £60 per person

Blackpool is one of the best loved seaside towns in the UK. Come and build sandcastles on the beach and paddle in the sea. Stay at The Pool Inn or Sandy Hotel and relax in our comfy rooms.

Email us at:
blackpool@coastalholidays.co.uk
for more information.

CORNWALL

from £67 per person

Come to Cornwall for an adventure! Look at the sea from the cliffs or the lighthouse. Stop at our Coastal Cottages for a cosy, family holiday. You won't want to go back home again!

Email us at:
cornwall@coastalholidays.co.uk
for more information.

1. Is this text Fiction (story) or Non-fiction (information text)?
2. What is the 'coast'?
3. What is a 'holiday'?
4. What are the names of the 2 places you can visit?
5. What can you build at Blackpool?
6. Complete the sentence:
Look at the sea from the _____ or the _____.
7. Is the title 'Coastal holidays' a good title? Explain why.
8. Can you research and find out 2 extra facts about Blackpool?
9. Can you research and find out 2 extra facts about Cornwall?
10. Using the information in the text, would you rather go to Blackpool or Cornwall? Explain why.