The Tree Look at the picture above and use your imagination to answer the questions below: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What type of tree might this be? 2. Where can it be found? 3. Who put the tiny tyre swing on this tree? 4. Who uses the tyre? 5. What or who might live in the tree? 	The Tree If we could have a tree in our school playground, which you could play in, what would it look like? What would it have? Draw a picture of your dream tree with everything you want it to have. Label the different parts and underneath explain why it needs these different parts. Remember your sentences must make sense, have capital letters and full stops.	The Tree Write a letter to Mrs Pringleton, persuading her to put your tree in the playground. Remember to give her lots of reasons why your tree is the best. You could start your letter like this: Dear Mrs Pringleton Please use my tree idea because	The Tree 'Sentence Doctor' These sentences make sense, they have capital letters and full stops in the right places. I think they are boring! Can you re-write them, making them more interesting? Remember they still need to make sense. The tree is green. It is in the park. There is a tyre. There is grass.	Use our EPIC log in to pick a book you are interested in and have a read. Can you write a few sentences telling me: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What the book is called. • What it is about or what happened. • If you liked/disliked it and why. • Draw a picture of a character if it's a story or tell me an interesting fact if it's non-fiction book.
