Around the World Look at the picture above and use your imagination to answer the questions below: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How many balloons do you think are taking part in the race? 2. Where might they be starting from? 3. Where might the race end? 4. How many balloons might be taking part? 5. What might the prize be for the winning balloon? 6. What dangers might they face on their journey? 	Around the World Imagine that you are going to be taking part in the race and you'll be in one of the balloons. Can you draw everything you would take with you on the journey? Label your pictures and underneath explain why you would take each item. Remember your sentences must make sense, have capital letters and full stops.	Around the World Imagine you are up in your balloon. Can you write a letter to me telling me what you can see, what it feels like to be up in the air, where you are going and when you are going to get there. You can also add any other details you want to – use your imagination! You could start your letter like this: Dear Mrs Johnson You won't believe where I am...	Around the World 'Sentence Doctor' These sentences make sense, they have capital letters and full stops in the right places. I think they are boring! Can you re-write them, making them more interesting? Remember they still need to make sense. It was a cloudy day. The balloon went up into the sky. The crew were scared.	Use our EPIC log in to pick a book you are interested in and have a read. Can you write a few sentences telling me: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What the book is called. • What it is about or what happened. • If you liked/disliked it and why. • Draw a picture of a character if it's a story or tell me an interesting fact if it's non-fiction book.
