

English - Week Beginning 8th June 2020

This week you are going to be writing about your positive experiences of lockdown.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Today write about: What is your best memory of Lockdown? This could be such as playing a game with your brother or sister, baking with your dad, dancing with your mum. Write down your best memory and why it is your favourite. Remember to write in sentences using full stops and capital letters.	Today write about: What new skills have you learnt in lockdown? This could be anything from making a sandwich or learning to skip. There is no limit to what this can be. You might have learnt more than one new skill and you can write about them all. Write down how you feel about being able to do your new skills. Remember to write in sentences using full stops and capital letters.	Today write about: What new talents have you discovered in lockdown? This could be anything from drawing a picture of your favourite character to singing your favourite song all the way through. How do you feel about your new talents. When are you going to use them next? Remember to write in sentences using full stops and capital letters.	Today write about: What special qualities have you discovered during lockdown? This could be anything from keeping on task doing schoolwork at home, being helpful at home or even being good at playing with a younger brother or sister at home. How did you realise you had these special qualities? How do they make you feel? Remember to write in sentences using full stops and capital letters.	Today write about: What was your favourite toy to play with or activity to do during lockdown? This could be anything you did lots of times because you really liked it. It could be playing with lego and building a big model, it could be doing lots of baking or it could be something else completely. Write down why it was your favourite and if you want to continue to do it after lockdown. Remember to write in sentences using full stops and capital letters.
