

Year 2 Writing

This week we are going to describe characters. When we do this we need to think about:

- What they look like, what they wear etc.
- What type of a character they might be – their personality.
- What they like or don't like
- What they like to do or don't like to do.

You can use your imagination to make up your ideas.

On Monday it is World Ocean Day so we are going to be describing characters linked to stories about the ocean.
